

WEYBRECHT

Is the Democratic Candidate For Congress.

IS NOMINATED ON THE SECOND BALLOT.

General I. R. Sherwood Given a Complimentary Vote Though His Name Was Not Presented—Major Weybrecht, Attired in the Uniform Which Saw Service Before Santiago With the Eighth Ohio Regiment, Is Ushered Into the Hall Amid Great Enthusiasm.

Alliance, September 10.—(Special.)—Major Charles C. Weybrecht of this city was nominated on the second ballot as Democratic candidate for congress by the Democratic party in convention assembled in this city today. Delegates to the convention arrived on morning trains from the counties comprising the Eighteenth congressional district. Delegates from the different counties met at appointed hours and places and appointed members to the various committees.

Majoring county effected an organization by electing Mayor Moore chairman, C. E. Maurer member of the committee on resolutions, J. C. McCrone committee on credentials, I. A. Justice committee on rules and order, R. F. Linn on permanent organization, Fred Kearsch and F. L. Clark on the congressional committee.

The Stark county delegation chose W. W. Gilson chairman, Atlee Pomeroy committee on resolutions, C. L. Oberly committee on credentials, J. A. Rice committee on rules and order, A. H. McCadden committee on organization, J. W. Pontius and C. W. Harrison for congressional committee.

Columbiana county elected J. J. Wisard chairman, E. Rickenberger committee on resolutions, W. S. Potts committee on rules and order, William Mercon committee on credentials, E. E. Black on permanent organization, T. F. Forner and T. S. Arnold on congressional committee. Columbiana county had no candidate, and decided to cast one complimentary vote for City Solicitor A. W. Taylor of Salem.

At 11:15 the convention was called to order in the old Methodist church by George W. Logan of the congressional committee. Mayor Moore of Youngstown was made chairman and John C. Harmony of Canton secretary of the convention. Mayor Moore made a brief address and named committees, after which the convention adjourned.

When the convention was again called to order at 12:15, Chairman Atlee Pomeroy of the committee on the resolutions presented the following

RESOLUTIONS:

Resolved, That the Democracy of the Eighteenth congressional district, in convention assembled, hereby reaffirms the principles of the national platform adopted at Chicago in 1896 and the principles adopted by the Democracy of the state of Ohio at its recent convention at Dayton.

Resolved, That the welfare of the people being the purpose of good and honest government, we favor the initiative and referendum whenever and wherever practical, in order that our people by direct vote may express themselves upon measures of public policy.

Resolved, That the late war has been attempted to be used by the administration for the advancement of political friends without regard to their fitness, all of which has been made manifest by the schemes of corruption and plunder in army management, as shown by the suffering, disease and death among gallant and faithful soldiers of its rank and file, victims of a set of political schemers and bucksters enthroned in power.

Resolved, That we commend the courage, fidelity and patriotism of our volunteer soldiers in the war for free Cuba. We hold that the threats against our volunteers who have seen fit to criticize the incompetency and corruption of high officers should meet with unqualified condemnation, and the denial of the right of petition and the almost universal threat of court martial is a violation of the most sacred right of American citizenship. We hold that no citizen forfeits any civil rights by public expression when he enters the army or navy of the patriotic volunteers.

Resolved, That we agree with our Republican friends as to the necessity of reform in our currency, and regret that the President's international monetary commission came out so grotesque a failure, and we hereby unqualifiedly pledge ourselves in favor of the restoration of silver to its true position as a monetary metal and demand the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the will of any foreign nation.

Resolved, That the experiences of late years should convince all that the people's safety and the country's welfare demand a return to those cardinal principles of Democratic faith as laid down by Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan, and based on justice and aiming at equality of rights and opportunity.

THE BALLOTS.

Immediately following the enthusiastic adoption of the resolutions, the call of the counties was made. Columbiana had no candidate. Mayor Moore of Youngstown in a fine speech presented the name of J. H. Morris of Mahoning. He was followed by Mayor Rice who in an eloquent address presenting Major C. C. Weybrecht of Stark worked the convention to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. At the close of his spirited oration the old church rang with deafening cheers and applause.

The result of the first ballot was as follows:

Columbiana—Taylor 49.
Mahoning—Morris, 8; Sherwood, 1.
Stark—Weybrecht, 73; Sherwood, 21; Morris, 1; Taylor, 1.
The second ballot resulted:

Columbiana—Weybrecht, 45; Morris, 4.
Mahoning—Morris, 8; Sherwood, 1.
Stark—Weybrecht, 65½; Sherwood, 5½.

Major Weybrecht having received 110½ votes, while but 101 were necessary to a choice, was declared the choice of the convention amid great enthusiasm.

The patriotic young soldier who worked so hard night and day for his comrades and spent every dollar he received providing for their comfort, was brought into the hall and escorted to the platform. He wore the uniform which had seen such gallant service in Cuba. Looking every inch the soldier and the man, he addressed the convention, assuring his friends that he would accept the responsibility and do all in his power to lead his party to ultimate victory.

MRS. ANNA M. GARBER

Dies at the Home of Her Daughter Mrs. Benjamin McCloud at a Ripe Old Age.

Mrs. Anna M. Garber widow of Dr. C. Garber, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin McCloud, 337 West Ninth street, Friday morning at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Garber reached the ripe old age of 87 years. During the entire summer she was in good health and took an active interest in the doings of the world. About two weeks ago the old lady began to fail. It was the collapsing infirmity of old age and she slowly sank beneath the weight of years. Mrs. Garber was a sturdy character, springing from old Pennsylvania stock. She and her husband Dr. Garber, who for years practiced medicine in the city where he was widely known, removed from Lancaster, Pa., in 1866. Dr. Garber died over 30 years ago. For several years the widow resided with a sister in Green-town but when her sister died about three years ago Mrs. Garber came to the home of her daughter, where she ended her days. Three children, three grand children and five great grand children survive. The children are Mrs. S. A. Yeagley, Lebanon, Pa.; Mrs. Benjamin McCloud, Canton, and R. G. Garber, Cleveland. Officer Fred McCloud of this city is a grandson. Funeral services will be held at the McCloud residence in West Ninth street Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be in the Green-town cemetery.

Strong, steady nerves
Are needed for success
Everywhere. Nerves
Depend simply, solely,
Upon the blood.
Pure, rich, nourishing
Blood feeds the nerves
And makes them strong.
The great nerve tonic is
Hood's Sarsaparilla,
Because it makes
The blood rich and
Pure, giving it power
To feed the nerves.
Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures nervousness,
Dyspepsia, rheumatism,
Catarrh, scrofula,
And all forms of Impure blood.

CASES FILED.

Common Pleas Court Opens Monday Morning and Petitions Are Beginning to Come In.

Amelia Hays has commenced an action against Oliver Hays for divorce. The couple were married August 29, 1895, and plaintiff alleges that defendant never lived with her more than a few days and never gave a cent toward the support of herself or their little daughter Ruth, who was three years old in November, 1898. Gross neglect, cruelty and other statutory grounds are alleged. Plaintiff wants divorce, alimony and custody of their child. Willson & Gay represent the plaintiff.

Winfield S. Shortz has sued George Hahn and the Farmers' Bank to recover $740.35 alleged due on a note and secured by mortgage. McCarty & McDowell represent plaintiff. The Farmers Bank has brought suit against Gottlieb Kieher et al. claiming $495 due on a note. A mortgage foreclosure is asked. McCarty & McDowell represent plaintiff.

Catherine Winterhalter has sued John A. Reimsnyder, Paul Joliet and the Canton board of education, alleging that she secured a judgment from the first named defendant for $1,059, of which $148.75 remains unpaid. The defendants named, it is alleged, owe Reimsnyder, and plaintiff asks the court to order that they pay her that part of the judgment outstanding. Meyer & Winterhalter filed the petition.

Abner J. Brosius has filed an action against Minna Alexander and M. E. Brosius, praying judgment for $1,350, alleged due on a promissory note. A. C. Strong represents the petitioner.

Benjamin F. Taylor has brought suit in court for a divorce from his wife, Elizabeth Taylor. They were married, he claims, in April, 1884, and in August, 1884, she abandoned him. J. B. Snyder represents plaintiff.

Frank A. Boron has sued Anna P. Boron for divorce. The couple were married in January, 1896, and have one little child, Herbert, aged two years. Plaintiff alleges infidelity and cruelty and asks for custody of the baby and that defendant be enjoined from disposing of certain personal property owned by plaintiff. Welty & Albaugh represent plaintiff.

Hannah Schaeffer has commenced an action against Thomas H. Fenton and Susan Nist to recover $300 alleged due on a note and for the sale of mortgaged property. J. M. Myers filed the petition. Conrad Schwartz has commenced an action against H. Tabb et al. to quiet title in the Balser music hall premises. Plaintiff claims to have purchased lot No. 13 and that defendants claim an interest in the premises. Plaintiff therefore sues to have a cancellation of mortgages, judgments and liens, as provided by law. Welty & Albaugh represent plaintiff.

ANSWER FILED

In the Case Enjoining the County Recorder From Certifying as to Robertsville's Incorporation.

In the Robertsville injunction case of Norman Reese et al. against Joseph A. Read, recorder, an answer has just been filed by Charles A. Dougherty, who recently assumed the duties of recorder. The answering defendant admits that the board of trustees of Paris township filed a transcript of all proceedings had by the trustees relative to the incorporation of the village of Robertsville, and that they declared that the hamlet was and should be deemed incorporated from and after June 11, 1898. These were received and duly recorded before this action was commenced, and would have been certified and forwarded to the secretary of state had not the case been commenced. Defendant further answering says he has no definite knowledge that the plaintiffs are electors or taxpayers of Paris township, and therefore denies same and demand strict proof thereof. The defendant asserts that his answer is founded upon information secured from records of the case in his office, and not from personal knowledge of the facts. J. B. Snyder and C. C. Bow represent defendant.

Chronic Diarrhoea Cured.

This is to certify that I have had chronic diarrhoea ever since the war. I got so weak I could hardly walk or do anything. One bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me sound and well.

J. R. Gibbs, Fincastle, Va.
I had chronic diarrhoea for twelve years. Three bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me. S. L. Shaver, Fincastle, Va.
Both Mr. Gibbs and Mr. Shaver are prominent farmers and reside near Fincastle, Va. They procured the remedy from M. W. E. Casper, a druggist of that place, who is well acquainted with them and will vouch for the truth of their statements. For sale by all druggists.

LIVE ISSUES.

They Have Been Developed By The War.

AN APPEAL TO THE MASSES.

Excellent Opportunities Presented to The Democracy.

McKINLEY HELD RESPONSIBLE

For the sufferings of soldiers in the Field and His Administration Is a Subject For Just Criticism—Resolutions Adopted in Democratic Conventions Indicate This Sentiment.

One of the strongest Republican papers in the east is the Providence, R. I. Journal, certainly one of the ablest papers in New England. It gave Mr. McKinley unstinting support during the campaign of 1896 because it thought he was a man who would not allow himself to be controlled by every wind that blew. The Journal sees trouble in store for the Republican party, and does not hesitate to place the President in the category to which he belongs. The following is from a recent issue of the Journal:

Perhaps we may have a live issue in the fall campaign after all. The leaders of both parties, or at any rate the more intelligent of them, have been agreed all summer that the questions of national policy presented by the results of the late hostilities, and that it was going to be very difficult to find any issue for us in the congressional elections that would appeal with any force to the masses. But now it appears that we may have an issue that will deeply interest everybody, and which, if made the most of by the opponents of the McKinley administration, may be made to bring about great changes at Washington. It is the issue presented by the gross mismanagement of the war department that has condemned thousands of our brave soldiers to utterly needless suffering and even to inglorious deaths from disease and starvation.

There is no question that the American people feel keenly on this subject, that they are ready, as soon as the responsibility is fully and definitely determined, to throw the weight of their combined rebuke upon the guilty persons and to mete out to them the severest penalty that it is practicable for them to inflict. This state of the popular mind presents an excellent opportunity to the Democratic party, which is sadly in need of some new rallying cry now that free silver is dead for at least a season, and there are already evidences that at least some of the Democratic leaders are awake to the chance and prepared to make the most of it. The Wisconsin Democrats, for example, in convention at Milwaukee the other day, put this stirring plank into their platform:

We condemn in unqualified measure the war department for the blunders and crimes committed against the brave boys in blue in camp and on foreign battle fields by selfish contractors, incompetent quartermasters and vain, haughty army officers appointed for political purposes. We hereby pledge to our brave soldiers and soldiers who survive this war our earnest and loyal support to secure the punishment of the guilty parties.

The charges made in this plank are perhaps more sweeping than the known circumstances warrant, but the pledge is one which will unquestionably attract, and deservedly, the sympathy of hundreds of thousands of voters. On the same day that these western Democrats were taking this strong position of antagonism to the McKinley administration on a new issue, here in the east the New Hampshire Democrats adopted a platform containing the following plank:

We commend to the generosity of a grateful people the soldiers of the late war with Spain, sympathize and commiserate with all such as are now suffering agonies the direct result of glaring incompetence and brutal neglect upon the part of the war department of the general government, and demand a thorough, impartial investigation of that department by a Democratic congress and the summary punishment of the men who have prostituted patriotism to partisanship and greed.

These are strong words, but no stronger than the circumstances warrant, and very likely they will be found to be the keynote of the Democratic campaign this fall. At any rate we may be sure that a great many other Democratic conventions will adopt similar planks during the next few weeks.

Neither is there any doubt that such an arraignment of the war department will be heartily approved by the great majority of the American people. The possibility of making it a success as a party issue depends on the extent to which the people are willing to hold the Republican administration responsible for the wrongs committed, primarily, by one branch of it.

We may feel confident that if the Democrats only have the sense to shelve some of their old issues and stick closely to the lines of the Wisconsin and New Hampshire platforms they can secure for their congressional candidates in November a good many votes that but for Alger would have gone to the Republicans.

Indeed, nothing but the extreme blindness and prejudice of partisanship can be expected to prevent the anger of the American people from falling with full force on the administration and its head, through the party it represents. There is no injustice in making the President share with his secretary the responsibility for the pitiful state of things which private charity is now trying to alleviate. He is the real head of the war department, Secretary Alger being merely his agent and appointee. He was told when he selected this man, and no doubt knew perfectly well himself, that he was not fit for the place even in times of peace, and that if war should come he would be an utter failure. Yet, for political reasons, he appointed him. Why should he not now be held responsible for the consequences? Moreover, he has had ample opportunity to watch at closest range all that Alger has been doing in preparing for the war, during its progress and since its close. His failure to interfere amounts to indorsement of the secretary's conduct. He has no right to hope to escape his share of the terrible responsibility for the sick, dying and dead soldiers who, but for the gross incompetence of his agents and appointees would today be healthy and happy heroes, ready for further service on the field whenever called upon.

GEORGE HERMANN

Died at His Home, of Blood Poisoning, After a Life Spent Mostly in Canton.

George Hermann, a well known resident of the city, died at his home, 986 Mahoning street, Sunday afternoon at 9:30. Death was due to blood poisoning after a two weeks' illness. Deceased was born in Waertermberg, Germany, August 31, 1844. In 1863 he came to America and located in Cincinnati, where in 1868 he wedded Miss Catherine Heider. About 1875 Mr. and Mrs. Hermann came to Canton, where Mr. Hermann engaged in the brewery and saloon business. For eighteen years he has conducted a restaurant at the home in Mahoning street, where he died. Mr. Hermann was connected with Canton industries. He was a liberal, big hearted German who had scores of friends. His death was comparatively sudden and was a shock to his large circle of acquaintances. He was a member of the Schwaben-Verein. A widow and four children survive. The latter are Mrs. J. Fry, George Hermann, Misses Kate and Anna Hermann, all of this city. Funeral services at late residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. P. Herbruck officiating. Interment in Westlawn.

COURT NOTES.

A motion to discharge an attachment in the proceedings of Mary Finally against Anna E. George was argued in common pleas court during the morning. Attorney Upham represented plaintiff and W. O. Wentz the defendant. The case was brought up from justice's court under a new law which makes it possible to appeal such cases within three days. The lower court overruled the motion. Judge McCarty has it under advisement.

Mary A. Meyer has sued Henry S. Landis to recover $204.04 alleged due on a promissory note. C. T. Meyer represents plaintiff.

Christina Lister has commenced an action against T. Harvey Smith, treasurer of Stark county, to enjoin him from further collecting $40.55 from plaintiff. The plaintiff claims to owe $27.84 which she has offered to pay, but the defendant will accept nothing short of the amount mentioned, which she contends is not an illegal claim. J. M. Blake represents plaintiff.

REUNION OF THE 162nd.

The surviving members of the 162nd O. V. I. had a most enjoyable time at their regimental reunion at Nimsilla Park, Canton, Ohio, on Thursday, September 15, 1898.

About 9:30 a. m., the boys began to come together and talk about the days of 1864. There was a short business meeting before dinner at which the company roll of the several companies was called and the boys present answered "here."

A committee of arrangements for 1899 was then appointed as follows: George H. Spangler, Canton; George Snyder, Massillon, O.; and J. W. Faulk, Waco, O.

Dinner being ready the members and their friends proceeded to the park hall where the ladies of the W. O. T. U. had prepared a fine and substantial dinner. The meeting of the afternoon was opened by music from the old regimental drum corps. Speeches were made by Sheriff J. J. Zaiser, G. H. Spangler, L. K. Hurford, Michael Bitzer, Hiram Criswell of Republic, Mo.

The officers elected for 1899 are: President, H. R. Bennett, Co. H; vice president, D. W. Dehoff, Co. G; secretary-treasurer, H. C. Holl, Co. E; assistant secretary, Mrs. Maggie E. Christian; chaplain, R. E. Wilson, Co. G; musical director, W. C. Lowery, Co. G; committee to report deaths, Co. A, Adam Volkmar; Co. B, Josiah Bowen; Co. C, T. B. Lutzeneiser; Co. D, William Becknell; Co. E, H. C. Holl; Co. F, L. H. Stands; Co. G, R. E. Wilson; Co. H, H. R. Bennett; Co. I, J. W. Faulk; Co. K, S. Y. Hamilton.

Henry C. Holl gave the comrades a short talk about the reunion between the boys of the several companies who had gone to Cincinnati to the G. A. R. encampment and the boys of Co. K who mostly reside in Brown county, Ohio. Six boys of Co. K met the boys at the First Intermediate school house on Baymiller street on the morning of the 7th of September. The names of the boys are Samuel Y. Hamilton, Thomas McConn, William C. Brown, Samuel W. Pickett, Jacob C. Milligan and Norval Johnson.

Letters of regret for non-attendance were read from Daniel Lichty, Rockford, Ill.; Capt. G. P. Davis, Washington, D. C.; J. B. Norton, Paola, Kas.; C. R. Beckly, Orrville, O.; A. H. McPeters, Campbellville, Ky.; and A. F. Liggett, Decatur, O. The meeting was entertained by singing under the leadership of Comrade W. C. Lowery.

The next reunion will be held at the same place at such a time as the committee on arrangements shall appoint. All in all the reunion was a very enjoyable affair, and the members will long remember the reunion of 1898. The members present were as follows:

Co. A—Lieut. S. C. Bowman, Jacob Hoyer, D. M. Merrill, J. D. Miller, George Snyder, Adam Volkmar, Lehman Waggoner and J. B. Wert, regimental quartermaster.

Co. B—William Rank, W. H. Wyant, Josiah Bowen, J. B. Shotts, William Ritterspach, B. T. Berlin, Frank Bowen, F. W. Bowen, H. S. Kaufman, William L. Miller, Lew H. Walcott.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
